Minister's Column: What Does it Mean to be a People of Joy?

It is hard work these days to reach deep down into the well to pull up a little joy. Indeed, the well may seem bone dry.

What with the pandemic claiming lives of some of our loved ones and keeping us away from others, grief is at the forefront of our minds.

And then there is the “unprecedented” political climate.

And the great righteous uprising that calls us to justice in the face of murderous racism.

That's a lot to bear. The well of joy may seem bone dry.

And so, this is exactly when we need to dig a deeper well. We may even need to dig a new well. We will not, cannot survive this pandemic, or get out of our current political pickle, or dismantle the structures of white supremacy if we don't find joy and get it on our side. We need to be the People of Joy.

Anger, guilt, defensiveness, blame, and hopelessness are only going to get us so far. We can yell, point fingers, and burn the whole thing down, but if we don't sing, dance, love and laugh then we will tear ourselves apart body and soul.

The revolution has songs that lift the spirit. Laughter will give you energy to carry on. Dancing shakes the shakes and the nasties away. And the transformative power of radical love can overcome all fear, hatred and oppression.

Give yourself permission to seek and find joy. It will save you, the ones you love and your community.

Yours in faith and affection, Rev. Joan Montagnes

Pulpit Previews

July 5: Discovering Joy, Rev. Joan Montagnes

"Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness" is a well-known phrase in the United States Declaration of Independence. As Dr. Phil would ask, "How's that working for you?"

July 12: Thriving on Joy, Julie Taylor

Donald Trump acquitted. Kobe died. Australia on fire and koalas burning. Coronavirus. Quarantine. Millions lose jobs. No toilet paper. 100,000+ dead. Tiger King. Kids learning at home. Face masks. Murder hornets. Armed gunmen at the Michigan capital. George Floyd. Protests.

Are you exhausted yet? We all are. There's one practice that can help us cultivate the resilience. Let's look at how we can practice joy every day, and how joy can be the difference between surviving and thriving.

July 19: Destroying the Towers to Create a New World, Rev. Lynn Acquafondata

A spiritual perspective on systemic change drawing from psychology, Buddhism and the play of children.

July 26: Being a Faithful Fool, Hy Carrel

How joy and justice meet on the street? The Faithful Fools ministry was founded in California out of unlikely pairing of Franciscan Catholicism and Unitarian Universalism.

Joys and Sorrows

Our hearts are with Bill and Liz Parke and their family. Bill's father, the Rev. David Parke, passed away on June 6. We are grateful for the many gifts he has given our community and our faith.

We send healing thoughts to Raife Kockrille. Raife has recently been seriously ill in hospital. May his recovery be speedy and uneventful.

Our compassion is with Tom, John, and Laura Petrocelli, Maria Testa and all their loved ones. Tom's mother, Doris, passed away on May 12. In addition to being a mom, she was a Catholic religious educator, theologian and editor at the Paulist Press.

Our thoughts are with Tom and Louise Yots. Tom's brother, John, died on June 16th.

Our thoughts are with Brigitte Bachmann and her family. Brigitte, a soloist in our choir for many years, passed away.

We send our sympathies to Laurissa Gereinder, whose grandfather died in June.

Congratulations go to the Rev.s Tim Ashton and John Rex who are celebrating their 50 and 25 year anniversary of ordination in the Unitarian Universalist ministry respectively. We are grateful for all they have given to our faith over the years and continue to give.

Joyfully we announce the birth of Zoé Elise Lavoie to Julia Gallagher and Paul Lavoie.

Rev. Joan's Identity Used and Abused!

Many emails that look like they are from Rev. Joan have gone out to church members asking for emergency assistance in the form of gift cards. They are not from Rev. Joan. Rev. Joan will never:

- Ask you for gift cards via an email
- Send you an email on an account ending with gmail.com – trust only her buffalouu.org account

If you receive one of these emails, block the sender so they will be unable to send you any more requests. Sadly, there is nothing the church can do to stop the emails because they do not come from the church.

Religious Education & Adult Faith Development News

Sarah Martin, Director of Religious Education

Are you ready to find out what we've got coming up in Religious Education this summer and fall? We've been working hard to come up with a plan and we are thrilled to share with you what we have so far!

SUMMER RE

Our religious education plans for this summer are underway, but the best part is that you are welcome to join us at any time!

Family Religious Education

Each Sunday at 1 pm, meet us on Zoom. We'll explore our Unitarian Universalist roots, the values that bring us together as a faith, and create community together. Children are welcome to come by themselves, but we encourage families to attend together!

Join Zoom Meeting, Sundays at 1pm

Coming of Age

Our rising 8th and 9th graders have begun their journey of personal spiritual exploration. This summer, they'll be meeting at 6 pm on Sundays, twice a month, to discover what Unitarian Universalism means to them, create personal faith credos, and beginning planning the fundraising they'll do to support their heritage trip to Boston in June, 2021. If you know an upcoming 8th or 9th grader who would like to participate in this program, please email lifespan@buffalouu.org.

RE PROGRAMMING FOR 2020-2021

Though we won't be meeting in person at the church on Sunday mornings, we will provide a wide range of programming to fit our families' needs. Most classes will have monthly packets that can be picked up at the church or mailed to you if time/distance is an issue. These packets will include stories, materials that can be used alongside online classes or on their own, and activities for families to engage in religious education together. Because we will offer many of these classes at different times, students will be able to participate in more than one age-appropriate class if they choose.

PLEASE REGISTER NOW FOR 2020-2021 RE! Early registration will make sure we can connect with families and prepare enough monthly packets. It will also help us tailor our programming to best fit the needs of your children and youth. You can register at the following link: <https://forms.gle/4MjbNRKERWRdD2Hr5>

Though we may adjust some of these offerings based on enrollment and interest, here is what we hope to offer for our children and youth programming:

PreK - Online storytime and craft a couple of times a month and packets for families to use offline.

Spirit Play (K-2) - Online class a couple of times a month and packets of stories/manipulatives that can be used during sessions or at home.

Workshops (K-5) - Online classes that engage with monthly themes and rotate through Music, Art, Science, and Social Action sessions, activity packets that can be used alongside classes or on their own.

Graphic Novels (4th-8th Grade) - Online class meetings and take-home packets that will encourage spiritual exploration, deepen knowledge of Unitarian Universalist History, and call us to action based on our UU values, all while creating original graphic novels and stories.

To Be Determined Class for 6th-7th Graders - Based on need, desire, and class size, we are considering alternate programming to fit the needs of our rising 6th and 7th graders.

Coming of Age (8th-9th Grade) - (Already in progress but open to new members) Class meets twice a month online, exploring their journeys as Unitarian Universalists and developing their personal faith credos. This class involves fundraising for an end of the year heritage trip to Boston (June 2021, hopefully!)

High School Youth Group (9th-12th Grade) - Our high school youth meet weekly to check in with one another, have fun together, engage in social justice actions, and plan or participate in local and regional youth conferences with other UU youth. All high school youth are welcome to join. Email lifespan@buffalouu.org to get connected with our high school youth group.

Volunteer Now!

We are actively looking for volunteers to help facilitate several of these classes!

Volunteer requirements are as follows:

- * Consent to a background check
- * Roughly 2-4 hours on Zoom per month leading classes
- * A small amount of planning/prep time, usually carried out over email, during the month

If connecting with our fabulous children and youth over Zoom a couple of times a month sounds like a great way for YOU to serve our congregation, or if you'd like more information about volunteering for RE, please email lifespan@buffalouu.org today!

UAIM – Accessibility and Inclusion Ministry News

The Americans with Disabilities Act is 30 years old this month. Before the ADA was signed, the disabled community fought for many years to be heard. When President Bush signed the ADA, the disabled community was very hopeful. When President Obama signed the Affordable Care Act, the disabled community was again hopeful that more people would be eligible for health care. Judy Heumann in her book, Being Heumann, talks and describes the long process disabled groups took before the ADA was signed.

Since Donald Trump has become President, he has defunded parts of Obama Care which are vital for people with disabilities. He has also created administrative barriers regarding the ADA and Social Security Disability to reduce their effectiveness. This has left millions of disabled people struggling to keep living independently. A majority of disabled people use Medicaid to pay for Care Aides. Medicaid pays for more than half of in-home service which keeps disabled people living independently, which was an important goal of the Americans with Disabilities Act. In-Home Aides assist disabled people with Activities of Daily Living (bathing, feeding), preparing meals and driving to work or outside activities

Joe Biden who is running for President has put out a plan that would expand access to home and community-based services including hiring additional caregivers. His plan also would build on Obama Care. Senator Tammy Duckworth (who is disabled) recently said, "I'm proud to see Joe Biden advance his disability rights agenda that will help break down the barriers that remain in our country for many Americans with disabilities."

Hopefully in the future, the Americans With Disabilities will be respected and expanded. Disabilities Rights are Human Rights. People with Disabilities only want to be inclusive and accessible to all. They want to be value for their abilities and not be seen as disabled.

Issues related to individuals with disabilities are above all human rights. People with disabilities have a right to live their lives with dignity and with as much independence as they are capable of. Hopefully in the near future Federal policies will be aligned for this to occur.

Social Justice Ministry

During this time of pandemic, many of us are squeezed to the limit juggling the responsibilities of work and managing children all day. But some of us have had our "down" time expand and are looking for meaningful ways to contribute to the community while maintaining physical distancing recommendations and staying healthy.

The Justice Ministry Team invites you to join our newly formed Advocacy Team. As a member of the team, you will contact legislators, policymakers, friends, family, and neighbors in order to advance a justice cause. This may take the form of phone calls, emails and/or postcards and you will be expected to contribute in only those ways you feel comfortable and have the time to devote.

Please contact Kathy Taylor (ktay0409@gmail.com or 203 605-1544) to join the Advocacy Team.

Share-the-Plate July - RAPP

Our Justice Ministry team is excited to dedicate our July Share-the-Plate to Release Aging People in Prison (RAPP). Formerly incarcerated persons and advocates for those with long sentences founded RAPP based on the firm belief that no human being is disposable. WNY regional organizer Donna Robinson tirelessly supports her daughter and other women incarcerated at Bedford Hills, while working toward fair and timely parole, elder parole, and to transform the criminal justice system together.

Family Promise – Great News!

Family Promise to reopen week of August 3 with doubled capacity!

If you'd thought of volunteering for Family Promise, but hadn't signed up, or you are one of our treasured, magnificent volunteers who have cooked, or helped in other ways, we have great news. The week of August 3, the Center at 75 Hickory Street will reopen with three more new bedrooms and baths. Our church has volunteered to be the first returning group of cooks, and to be "on call", as needed. FP Executive Director loves UU volunteers because our nonjudgmental, welcoming approach shows "we get it". Your role would be making a simple meal with a co-chef I will provide for you. It a most rewarding volunteer experience!

Although the center will now have a capacity of six families, the Executive Director will start with one family. If you prefer to just drop off the makings of a supper meal, that's OK, too. Our church will offer suppers Monday- Thursday, with different volunteers each night, August 3-6. Interested? Email Nancy Wilkins at <mailto:nlaurienwilkins@yahoo.com>.

Family Promise provides temporary lodging and connections to community agencies for families who are seeking permanent homes, in partnership with a network of a handful of host/support churches. It is one of only two shelters which keeps families together, not separating fathers and mothers. Our church 's magnificent volunteers provide meals and friendship to the families, and meet some courageous and loving parents in the process. In March, new arrivals were suspended after all the current families had found homes, due to concern over Covid-19 . The week of August 3, the center will welcome families again to the newly expanded site, which will provide private bedrooms and baths for up to six families.
