

Join Our Choir!

Rehearsals are every Thursday night 7:30-9:45pm from early September through mid-June

Are you looking for an opportunity to sing in a welcoming community? The Unitarian Universalist Choir of Buffalo is a diverse group made up of primarily volunteer singers, ranging from beginners to semi-professionals, from folks in their 20s to their 80s, that does not discriminate on bases of race, gender, or sexual identity. Our musical repertoire is diverse - with recent and upcoming performances including traditional, folk, rock, contemporary, and classical music dealing with topics both sacred and secular. We perform once or twice a month in services, as well as at select events around town.

Feel free to show up at a rehearsal or to reach out to Music Director Dr. Jessie Downs (jdowns@buffalouu.org) if you are interested in joining us!
